CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Dear Judge Browning,

Good morning.

My name is Linda Marianiello. As a fellow Yale alumna and resident of Santa Fe, I was very concerned about your decision to allow voters' names to be posted on a website funded by a very wealthy supporter of Donald Trump.

If there is anything many Americans have learned from the recent January 6 hearings, it's that there is and has been almost no voter fraud in the United States.

But what disturbs me most about your decision is that it appears to be so political and may or may not have any basis in the law. It seems to me that every judge must put aside personal beliefs in order to rule in a just way that befits their office.

Sincerely yours,

Linda Marianiello
